COMPLAINT

COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ECF Case

Plaintiffs Luis Camano and Nicasio Marcelino Vazquez, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), by and through their attorneys, CSM Legal, P.C., upon their knowledge and belief, and as against 106 Colombia Deli Corp. (d/b/a Columbia Deli), (“Defendant Corporation”), Ibrahim Alzubairy and Gamal Alfaqui, (“Individual Defendants”), (collectively, “Defendants”), allege as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendants 106 Colombia Deli Corp. (d/b/a Columbia Deli), Ibrahim Alzubairy, and Gamal Alfaqih.
2. Defendants own, operate, or control a deli, located at 945 Amsterdam Ave New York, NY 10032 under the name “Columbia Deli”.

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendants Ibrahim Alzubairy and Gamal Alfaqih, serve or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operate or operated the deli as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiffs were employed as delivery workers and stock workers at the deli located at 945 Amsterdam Ave New York, NY 10032.

5. Plaintiffs were ostensibly employed as delivery workers. However, they were required to spend a considerable part of their work day performing non-tipped duties, including but not limited to stocking inventory, taking out the trash, cleaning the bathroom, and cleaning the fridge (hereafter the “non-tipped duties”).

6. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiffs worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation for the hours that they worked.

7. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked and failed to pay Plaintiffs appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

8. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs wages on a timely basis.

9. In this regard, Defendants have failed to provide timely wages to Plaintiffs. Defendants employed and accounted for Plaintiffs as delivery workers in their payroll, but in actuality their duties required a significant amount of time spent performing the non-tipped duties alleged above.

10. Regardless, at all relevant times, Defendants paid Plaintiffs at a rate that was lower than the required tip-credit rate.

11. However, under both the FLSA and NYLL, Defendants were not entitled to take a tip credit because Plaintiffs' non-tipped duties exceeded 20% of each workday, or 2 hours per day, whichever is less in each day. 12 N.Y. C.R.R. §146.

12. Upon information and belief, Defendants employed the policy and practice of disguising Plaintiffs' actual duties in payroll records by designating them as delivery workers instead of non-tipped employees. This allowed Defendants to avoid paying Plaintiffs at the minimum wage rate and enabled them to pay them at the tip-credit rate (which they still failed to do).

13. In addition, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of unlawfully appropriating Plaintiffs' and other tipped employees' tips and made unlawful deductions from these Plaintiffs' and other tipped employees' wages.

14. Defendants' conduct extended beyond Plaintiffs to all other similarly situated employees.

15. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

16. Plaintiffs now bring this action on behalf of themselves, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees and costs.

17. Plaintiffs seek certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of themselves, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

18. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

19. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a deli located in this district. Further, Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants in this district.

PARTIES

Plaintiffs

20. Plaintiff Luis Camano ("Plaintiff Camano" or "Mr. Camano") is an adult individual residing in New York County, New York.

21. Plaintiff Camano was employed by Defendants at Columbia Deli from approximately January 2021 until on or about December 14, 2021.

22. Plaintiff Nicasio Marcelino Vazquez ("Plaintiff Vazquez" or "Mr. Vazquez") is an adult individual residing in New York County, New York.

23. Plaintiff Vazquez was employed by Defendants at Columbia Deli from approximately May 2020 until on or about December 19, 2021.

Defendants

24. At all relevant times, Defendants owned, operated, or controlled a deli, located at 945 Amsterdam Ave New York, NY 10032 under the name “Columbia Deli”.

25. Upon information and belief, 106 Colombia Deli Corp. (d/b/a Columbia Deli) is a domestic corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Upon information and belief, it maintains its principal place of business at 945 Amsterdam Ave New York, NY 10032.

26. Defendant Ibrahim Alzubairy is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period. Defendant Ibrahim Alzubairy is sued individually in his capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of Defendant Corporation. Defendant Ibrahim Alzubairy possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation. He determines the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiffs, establishes the schedules of the employees, maintains employee records, and has the authority to hire and fire employees.

27. Defendant Gamal Alfaqih is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period. Defendant Gamal Alfaqih is sued individually in his capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of Defendant Corporation. Defendant Gamal Alfaqih possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation. He determines the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiffs, establishes the schedules of the employees, maintains employee records, and has the authority to hire and fire employees.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

28. Defendants operate a deli located in the Manhattan Valley section of Manhattan in New York City.

29. Individual Defendants, Ibrahim Alzubairy and Gamal Alfaqih, possess operational control over Defendant Corporation, possess ownership interests in Defendant Corporation, and control significant functions of Defendant Corporation.

30. Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

31. Each Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiffs' (and other similarly situated employees') working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiffs, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

32. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiffs (and all similarly situated employees) and are Plaintiffs' (and all similarly situated employees') employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

33. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiffs and/or similarly situated individuals.

34. Upon information and belief, Individual Defendants Ibrahim Alzubairy and Gamal Alfaqih operate Defendant Corporation as either an alter ego of themselves and/or fail to operate Defendant Corporation as an entity legally separate and apart from themselves, by among other things:

- a) failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate Defendant Corporation as a Corporation,

- b) defectively forming or maintaining the corporate entity of Defendant Corporation, by, amongst other things, failing to hold annual meetings or maintaining appropriate corporate records,
- c) transferring assets and debts freely as between all Defendants,
- d) operating Defendant Corporation for their own benefit as the sole or majority shareholders,
- e) operating Defendant Corporation for their own benefit and maintaining control over this corporation as a closed corporation,
- f) intermingling assets and debts of their own with Defendant Corporation,
- g) diminishing and/or transferring assets of Defendant Corporation to avoid full liability as necessary to protect their own interests, and
- h) Other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

35. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiffs, controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiffs' services.

36. In each year from 2021 to 2022, Defendants, both separately and jointly, had a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

37. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that were used in the deli on a daily basis are goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiffs

38. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendants who ostensibly were employed as delivery workers and stock workers. However, they spent over 20% of each shift performing the non-tipped duties described above.

39. Plaintiffs seek to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Luis Camano

40. Plaintiff Camano was employed by Defendants from approximately January 2021 until on or about December 14, 2021.

41. Defendants ostensibly employed Plaintiff Camano as a delivery worker.

42. However, Plaintiff Camano was also required to spend a significant portion of his work day performing the non-tipped duties described above.

43. Although Plaintiff Camano ostensibly was employed as a delivery worker, he spent over 20% of each day performing non-tipped work throughout his employment with Defendants.

44. Plaintiff Camano regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as food and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

45. Plaintiff Camano's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

46. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Camano regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

47. From approximately January 2021 until on or about December 14, 2021, Plaintiff Camano worked from approximately 7:00 p.m. until on or about 7:00 a.m., 6 days a week (typically 72 hours per week).

48. Throughout his employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff Camano his wages in cash.

49. From approximately January 2021 until on or about March 2021, Defendants paid Plaintiff Camano a fixed salary of $370 per week.

50. From approximately April 1, 2021 until on or about April 30, 2021, Defendants paid Plaintiff Camano a fixed salary of $400 per week.

51. From approximately May 2021 until on or about December 14, 2021, Defendants paid Plaintiff Camano a fixed salary of $500 per week.

52. Plaintiff Camano's pay did not vary even when he was required to stay later or work a longer day than his usual schedule.

53. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff Camano to work an additional 20 to 25 minutes past his scheduled departure time every day, and did not pay him for the additional time he worked.

54. Defendants never granted Plaintiff Camano any breaks or meal periods of any kind.

55. Plaintiff Camano was never notified by Defendants that his tips were being included as an offset for wages.

56. Defendants did not account for these tips in any daily or weekly accounting of Plaintiff Camano's wages.

57. Plaintiff Camano was not required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected his actual hours worked.

58. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Camano regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

59. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Camano an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

60. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Camano, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Camano's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

61. Defendants required Plaintiff Camano to purchase "tools of the trade" with his own funds—including two bicycles and one helmet.

Plaintiff Nicasio Marcelino Vazquez

62. Plaintiff Vazquez was employed by Defendants from approximately May 2020 until on or about December 19, 2021.

63. Defendants ostensibly employed Plaintiff Vazquez as a delivery worker.

64. However, Plaintiff Vazquez was also required to spend a significant portion of his work day performing the non-tipped duties described above.

65. Although Plaintiff Vazquez ostensibly was employed as a delivery worker, he spent over 20% of each day performing non-tipped work throughout his employment with Defendants.

66. Plaintiff Vazquez regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as food and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

67. Plaintiff Vazquez's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

68. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Vazquez regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

69. From approximately May 2020 until on or about September 2020, Plaintiff Vazquez worked from approximately 7:00 p.m. until on or about 7:00 a.m., 6 days a week (typically 72 hours per week).

70. From approximately October 2020 until on or about December 2021, Plaintiff Vazquez worked from approximately 6:00 p.m. until on or about 6:00 a.m., 6 days a week (typically 72 hours per week).

71. From approximately December 12, 2021 until on or about December 19, 2021, Plaintiff Vazquez worked from approximately 6:00 p.m. until on or about 1:00 a.m., 6 days a week (typically 42 hours per week).

72. Throughout his employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff Vazquez his wages in cash.

73. From approximately May 2020 until on or about June 2020, Defendants paid Plaintiff Vazquez a fixed salary of $300 per week.

74. From approximately July 2020 until on or about November 2020, Defendants paid Plaintiff Vazquez a fixed salary of $380 per week.

75. From approximately December 2020 until on or about May 2021, Defendants paid Plaintiff Vazquez $400 per week.

76. From approximately June 2021 until on or about December 19, 2021, Defendants paid Plaintiff Vazquez $500 per week.

77. Plaintiff Vazquez's pay did not vary even when he was required to stay later or work a longer day than his usual schedule.

78. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff Vazquez to work an additional 20 minutes past his scheduled departure time every day, and did not pay him for the additional time he worked.

79. Defendants never granted Plaintiff Vazquez any breaks or meal periods of any kind.

80. Plaintiff Vazquez was never notified by Defendants that his tips were being included as an offset for wages.

81. Defendants did not account for these tips in any daily or weekly accounting of Plaintiff Vazquez's wages.

82. Plaintiff Vazquez was not required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected his actual hours worked.

83. Defendants took improper and illegal deductions of Plaintiff Vazquez's wages; specifically, Defendants required Plaintiff Vazquez to pay for orders that were incorrectly delivered approximately 4 times per month.

84. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Vazquez regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

85. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Vazquez an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

86. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Vazquez, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Vazquez's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

88. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying them appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

89. Plaintiffs were victims of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate their rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying them the wages they were owed for the hours they worked.

90. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiffs not receiving payment for all their hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiffs' effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

91. Defendants habitually required Plaintiffs to work additional hours beyond their regular shifts but did not provide them with any additional compensation.

92. Defendants required Plaintiffs and all other delivery workers to perform general non-tipped tasks in addition to their primary duties as delivery workers.

93. These Plaintiffs and all similarly situated employees, ostensibly were employed as tipped employees by Defendants, although their actual duties included a significant amount of time spent performing the non-tipped duties outlined above.

94. The Plaintiffs' duties were not incidental to their occupation as tipped workers , but instead constituted entirely unrelated general deli work with duties, including the non-tipped duties described above.

95. These Plaintiffs and all other tipped workers were paid at a rate that was lower than the lower tip-credit rate by Defendants.

96. However, under state law, Defendants were not entitled to a tip credit because the tipped worker's and these Plaintiffs' non-tipped duties exceeded 20% of each workday (or 2 hours a day, whichever is less) (12 N.Y.C.R.R. § 146).

97. New York State regulations provide that an employee cannot be classified as a tipped employee on any day in which he or she has been assigned to work in an occupation in which tips are not customarily received. (12 N.Y.C.R.R. §§137-3.3 and 137-3.4). Similarly, under federal regulation 29 C.F.R. §531.56(e), an employer may not take a tip credit for any employee time if that time is devoted to a non-tipped occupation.

98. In violation of federal and state law as codified above, Defendants classified these Plaintiffs and other tipped workers as tipped employees, and paid them at a rate that was lower than the lower tip-credit rate when they should have classified them as non-tipped employees and paid them at the minimum wage rate.

99. Defendants failed to inform Plaintiffs who received tips that Defendants intended to take a deduction against Plaintiffs' earned wages for tip income, as required by the NYLL before any deduction may be taken.

100. Defendants failed to inform Plaintiffs who received tips, that their tips were being credited towards the payment of the minimum wage.

101. Defendants failed to maintain a record of tips earned by Plaintiffs who worked as delivery workers for the tips they received. As part of its regular business practice, Defendants intentionally, willfully, and repeatedly harmed Plaintiffs who received tips, by engaging in a pattern, practice, and/or policy of violating the FLSA and the NYLL. This policy and pattern or practice included depriving delivery workers of a portion of the tips earned during the course of employment.

102. Defendants unlawfully misappropriated charges purported to be gratuities received by tipped Plaintiffs, and other tipped employees, in violation of New York Labor Law § 196-d (2007).

103. Under the FLSA and NYLL, in order to be eligible for a "tip credit," employers of tipped employees must either allow employees to keep all the tips that they receive or forgo the tip credit and pay them the full hourly minimum wage.

104. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

105. Defendants paid Plaintiffs their wages in cash.

106. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

107. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiffs (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiffs properly for their full hours worked.

108. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

109. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiffs and other similarly situated former workers.

110. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

111. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION CLAIMS

112. Plaintiffs bring their FLSA minimum wage, overtime compensation, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the "FLSA Class members"), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the "FLSA Class Period").

113. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records under the FLSA.

114. The claims of Plaintiffs stated herein are similar to those of the other employees.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE MINIMUM WAGE PROVISIONS OF THE FLSA

115. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

116. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d). Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class Members), controlled the terms and conditions of their employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for their employment.

117. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were engaged in commerce or in an industry or activity affecting commerce.

118. Defendants constitute an enterprise within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203 (r-s).

119. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class members) at the applicable minimum hourly rate, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 206(a).

120. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class members) at the applicable minimum hourly rate was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

121. Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class members) were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

122. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

123. Defendants, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 207(a)(1), failed to pay Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class members) overtime compensation at a rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a work week.

124. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class members), overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

125. Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class members) were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE NEW YORK MINIMUM WAGE ACT

126. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

127. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 2 and 651. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiffs, controlled the terms and conditions of their employment, and determined the rates and methods of any compensation in exchange for their employment.

128. Defendants, in violation of NYLL § 652(1) and the supporting regulations of the New York State Department of Labor, paid Plaintiffs less than the minimum wage.

129. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs the minimum wage was willful within the meaning of N.Y. Lab. Law § 663.

130. Plaintiffs were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE OVERTIME PROVISIONS

OF THE NEW YORK STATE LABOR LAW

131. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

132. Defendants, in violation of N.Y. Lab. Law § 190 et seq., and supporting regulations of the New York State Department of Labor, failed to pay Plaintiffs overtime compensation at rates of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a work week.

133. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of N.Y. Lab. Law § 663.

134. Plaintiffs were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE NOTICE AND RECORDKEEPING

REQUIREMENTS OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

135. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

136. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs with a written notice, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiffs' primary language), containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by NYLL §195(1).

137. Defendants are liable to each Plaintiff in the amount of $5,000, together with costs and attorneys' fees.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE WAGE STATEMENT PROVISIONS

OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

138. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

139. With each payment of wages, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs with an accurate statement listing each of the following: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL 195(3).

140. Defendants are liable to each Plaintiff in the amount of $5,000, together with costs and attorneys' fees.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

RECOVERY OF EQUIPMENT COSTS

141. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

142. Defendants required Plaintiffs to pay, without reimbursement, the costs and expenses for purchasing and maintaining equipment and "tools of the trade" required to perform their jobs, further reducing their wages in violation of the FLSA and NYLL. 29 U.S.C. § 206(a); 29 C.F.R. § 531.35; N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 193 and 198-b.

143. Plaintiffs were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

UNLAWFUL DEDUCTIONS FROM TIPS IN VIOLATION

OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

144. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

145. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 2 and 651.

146. New York State Labor Law § 196-d prohibits any employer or his agents, including owners and managers, from demanding or accepting, directly or indirectly, any part of the gratuities received by an employee, or retaining any part of a gratuity, or any charge purported to be a gratuity, for an employee.

147. Defendants unlawfully misappropriated a portion of Plaintiffs' tips that were received from customers.

148. Defendants knowingly and intentionally retained a portion of Plaintiffs' tips in violations of the NYLL and supporting Department of Labor Regulations.

Plaintiffs were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

UNLAWFUL DEDUCTIONS FROM WAGES IN VIOLATION

OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

149. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though set forth fully herein.

150. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 2 and 651.

151. Defendants made unlawful deductions from Plaintiffs' wages; specifically, Defendants required Plaintiff Vazquez to pay for orders that were incorrectly delivered 4 times per month.

152. The deductions made from Plaintiffs' wages were not authorized or required by law.

153. Through their knowing and intentional efforts to take unauthorized deductions from Plaintiffs' wages, Defendants willfully violated NYLL, Article 6, §§ 190 et seq., and supporting

New York State regulations.

Plaintiffs were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE TIMELY PAYMENT PROVISIONS

OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

154. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though set forth fully herein.

155. Defendants did not pay Plaintiffs on a regular weekly basis, in violation of NYLL §191.

156. Defendants are liable to each Plaintiff in an amount to be determined at trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF
